Lok Jack eLearning Academic Student Enrollment

The Academic courses in Lok Jack eLearning are locked by default. In order to access relevant courses, an enrollment key is needed. This key would have been emailed to your GSB Student Email Account by your respective Programme Coordinator.

In order to enroll yourself in a course, follow the steps below.

1. Login to Lok Jack eLearning.

You need to login before you can access any content.
2. If you are NOT enrolled in any course as yet, the webpage will display a list of all courses.

If you are enrolled in any course and thus cannot see this list, in order to view a list of all courses click the All Courses button at the bottom of your homepage.
This will display a list of all courses, as shown below:

3. By clicking on the 📰 icon, a description of the course will popup in a new browser window.

4. To enroll for the course, click the 🗓️ icon.
A field will appear where you have to enter the enrollment key as provided by your Programme Coordinator.
The enrollment key is an 8-character code comprising of lowercase letters and numbers only. (No UPPERCASE or special characters or spaces).

Entering the enrollment key is a one-time event per course.

Upon entering the correct Enrollment Key, you will now have access to your relevant course, with all uploaded course materials. Repeat the steps 3 and 4 for all courses relevant to your programme.

For any assistance in using Lok Jack eLearning, please enroll in the course: Lok Jack eLearning 101 for Students, which will contain several tutorials to guide students in using this eLearning platform.
